About us - GNP Guia Naghi and Partners

We are a creative and versatile law firm that provides valuable advice to valuable clients.

With 17+ years of expertise in the legal business, we have come to the strong belief that every problem has more than one solution. The secret to finding that particular solution, the one which best suits our client's specific case is the capacity of having a fresh perspective and a dedicated mindset.

Our biggest value are the PEOPLE: people we work with, people we work for. This is why we do not do "off-the-shelf" anything, but tailor make everything, to suit people's missions, challenges and expectations. We do not endorse standard advice and standard results; we always strive for specially designed advice and exceptional results.

Our highest pledge is to QUALITY and BUSINESS MINDFULNESS: quality in the relationship with our clients, quality in the delivery of our advice, quality in approaching each assignment with attention to details and focus on sound business strategies that are able to provide effective results.

Quality is at the heart of the relationship with our clients and in how we deliver our advice. Therefore, we approach each assignment with attention to details and focus on sound business strategies that are able to provide effective results.
